

PROGRAM BENEFITS

Aggies Go Global Programs benefit both NMSU students and the state of New Mexico by:

- Providing every student an opportunity to have an inspiring international experience
- Creating an interdependent, campus-wide environment that is responsive to student aspirations for international learning and career opportunities
- Developing skills that can enable graduates to better function in intercultural and cross-cultural contexts and make them more competitive globally
- Connecting NMSU students to resources that will help them conduct research for an academic project, attend conferences in their desired field, or participate in volunteer initiatives abroad
- Prepare informed citizens to create and evaluate public policies with a global perspective
